Hardings May Take Summer White House

Suburban Home of McLeans Offered to President

By BETTY BAXTER
Correspondent of The Standard-Examiner.
WASHINGTON, July 22.—Rumors are the air at Washington is full of rumors of a sort of "friendship" between the Harbings and the McLeans. The Harbings have decided to borrow—rather than to buy—a summer White House, the suburb of the Edward Beale McLeans, which is a section of the suburb of the late President Cleveland once known as the "White House" and which is now a summer home. MAY GO TO MAINE
It is thought—rumored—that the Harbings will probably pass a week or two in Maine before returning to the winter. President Harding had planned to go to the White House last week-end at the Hot Springs, but the Harbings are generally believed to be in the Harbings. MUCH INTEREST IN TAYLOR-GRANTHAM WEDDING

Much interest attaches to the wedding of Miss Dorothy Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Taylor, and Arthur Grantham, which took place Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, 1165 Twenty-fifth street. The latest about the wedding is that he and Mrs. Harbings have decided to borrow—rather than to buy—a summer White House, the suburb of the Edward Beale McLeans, which is a section of the suburb of the late President Cleveland once known as the "White House" and which is now a summer home.

The bride wore a gown of silk net over silver cloth, and carried a shower of Opheelia roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Grace Jennings, wore a dress of light blue canton crepe over yellow silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. W. D. Harrison acted as best man. The home was an artistic profusion of sweet peas, zinnias and gladioli.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to 50 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Grantham left immediately on a wedding trip. They will visit in Los Angeles and San Francisco, and expect to return to their home in Ogden, August 10.

Mrs. Grantham entertained at a tete-a-tete Monday afternoon at her home. Sweet peas, Shasta daisies and marigolds decorated the room. A bowl of sweet peas formed the tea table, where Miss Dorothea Kanizer and Miss Louise Richardson presided. Mrs. Grantham was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. R. C. Taylor, Miss Myrtle Huff and Miss Serna Herschert. One hundred guests called between the hours of 3 and 6.

W. Peterson. Professor Severn is a former member of the Ogden high school faculty.

Miss Emma Eccles of Logan spent Thursday in Ogden, the guest of Mrs. T. Ben Meldrum. The following letter has been sent out to the Girl Scouts of Ogden by the chairman of camp committee, Mrs. S. S. Smith and the local director, Betty Stiles:

This year's camp promises to be a wonderful success as a splendid camp site is being utilized in South Fork canyon. Tents loaned by people of the community have been erected with good flooring to be used as sleeping quarters, dining and recreation halls. The entire arrangement of the camp is modeled from a Girl Scout's camp as studied by Miss Stiles, who has had experience in Girl Scout camps in New York.

Each troop in town will be represented at the camp. Each girl has been asked to earn some part of her camp money and most of the girls have earned money by taking care of children, doing some housework. The three basic principles of scouting will underlie the life of the camp, healthy active life in the open, household economics, first aid, practical patriotism and civic usefulness.

The sugar plum to hold out for scouts as the time during the year is given to household environment and camping is a delightful change. They make and men's clothes, wash clothes, cook, nurse the sick and do a hundred other things to increase their usefulness to society. Camp develops them along other lines while affording a relaxation, camp work, known as "Camp Kapers" will be assigned to each patrol of girls for a day.

Captains of troops will assist in classes, and the camp is open for visitors on Sunday between 1:30 and 5 o'clock. Everything possible for the comfort and pleasure of every Girl Scout, will be done at camp and we hope to have every Girl Scout in Ogden at the camp.

Mrs. Anna Jordan was hostess to the Women's Christian Temperance Union Wednesday at her home on Lincoln avenue. Mrs. H. Hantz was assisting hostess. The state president, Mrs. D. C. Jenkins, was present. A business meeting followed devoted to the work of the union. An invitation from the Federation of Women's clubs for the W. C. T. U. to be a member of the Federation was favorably acted upon. The program consisted of solos by Mrs. Grace Bartlett and a talk by Mrs. Jenkins. A letter from Mrs. Margaret Phillips, formerly of Ogden, who now lives at San Bernardino, was read by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Hantz. The out-of-town guest was Mrs. G. C. Randall, formerly of Ogden, and an active member of the local union, who now lives in California. Refreshments were served following the program. The state convention will be held in Salt Lake in September.

The annual picnic of the juniors of the Women's Benefit association of the Maccabees, which was to be held Thursday, July 20, at the Lorin Farr park, was postponed on account of the storm until next Thursday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Amusements of various kinds are being arranged for the children by the junior commander, Mrs. A. D. Kingsford, and the committee. Mothers are asked to furnish a basket lunch for their families. Fathers are invited to participate. Luncheon will be served at 6 p. m. All W. B. A. mothers and children are expected to be present and help to make this the biggest and best picnic ever held by the juniors.
